

Why is a hospice different?

Wigan & Leigh Hospice is an independent charitable organisation, able to react quickly to patients' needs and offering total holistic care to patients and their whole family.

The Hospice benefits from the skills of highly trained specialist staff. This ensures a very personal service, individually tailored to the needs of each patient and their carers. Attention to detail in things that are important to those in our care, and enhancing quality of life are the prime objectives of hospice care.

